Quick Thinker

A man went into a Birmingham supermarket and tried to buy half a cauliflower. The very young greens-produce assistant told him that they sold only whole cauliflowers. The man persisted, and asked to see the manager, and the boy went to find him.

Walking into the stock room, the boy said to his manager, "Some w****r out there wants to buy half a cauliflower." As he finished his sentence, he turned to find the customer standing right behind him, so he added, "And this gentleman has kindly offered to buy the other half."

The manager approved the deal, and the man went on his way. Later the manager said to the boy, "I was impressed with the way you got yourself out of that situation earlier. We like people here who think on their feet. Where are you from, son?"

"Cardiff, sir," the boy replied.

"Why did you leave Cardiff?" the manager asked.

The boy said, "Sir, there's nothing there but prostitutes and rugby players."

"Really?" said the manager. "My wife is from Cardiff."

"You're kidding?" replied the boy. "What position did she play?"

Have your sellers separated?

Did you know we also offer Family Law as a service here at Everingham Lawyers? Both Paul and Julia look after our family law clients and can assist in guiding them through the separation maze.

If you have sellers who have separated or in the process of selling up so they can go their separate ways.

We strongly recommend that you advise them to seek legal advice sooner rather than later so that settlement is not delayed because of a dispute about the proceeds of sale.
